Weddings

Here at MCSJ, we love a bit of romance! Imagine the thrill of making your own wedding rings...

Whether you're having a traditional wedding, a civil ceremony or getting hitched on a beach somewhere, knowing you made your own rings is a very special experience.

You and your partner can spend a day in lovely Cornwall and go home with unique wedding rings for your big day, hand made by you with love. You can't get more special than that!

One of the most common things our couples say when they've made their rings is how professional they look. It's hard to believe that complete beginners can create such wonderful rings but it's true, just look at the examples on our make your own wedding rings page.

What about having your hen weekend here? Bring your friends and you can all make your jewellery for the big day. You can also come here to make your tiara and wedding jewellery in one weekend.

We welcome everyone who's in love and wants to show their partner just how much...

What about making a special ring for your anniversary? Or the birth of a new baby...

Renewing your vows? Create a special piece of jewellery for your lover, it shows real thought and commitment. Contact us to discuss your ideas - we're here to help.
